31 Days of Prayer for My Child: A Parent's Guide Susan Alexander Yates, Allison Yates Gaskins
Parenting can be overwhelming. Putting the power of prayer to work would be wonderful--but how and where do you begin?

31 Days of Prayer for My Child helps you nurture the life-changing habit of talking with God about your family. Simple activities--like recording your prayers and God's answers--encourage you to personalize and deepen your prayer time and realize the benefits of praying for your child.

Read the book through or select the topic you need each day to focus quickly and easily on your child's particular needs. Either way, find inspiration for important issues like

- sibling rivalry
- health and safety
- fear of failure and other frustrations in child-raising
- your child's relationships with peers, teachers, family members, and God
