Clay Jar Cracked is the emotional and honest story of how one woman pushed logic, expectations, and her raging anger aside in order to lean on the only one who could save her marriage. Perhaps you will see yourself in her story. Perhaps you will see a friend. Clay Jar Cracked was written to help guide you and those you love through some of life's most painful and traumatic experiences.

Those who have faced financial ruin, the loss of a child, a daunting diagnosis, addiction, loss of faith, or a spouse's secret and double life are like fragile jars made of clay. Each of these experiences leaves a crack in that jar. Some are wider and deeper than others, but each weakens the whole.

As these cracks occur, how do we keep from shattering?

Clay Jar Cracked provides bold, thoughtful, and compelling answers to these questions and more. It also suggests an answer to the most intriguing question of all:

Could even the biggest cracks be worth it?
