In presenting this history of one of Boston's old taverns we not only give to the readers its ancient history but also show how the locality developed, at an early day, from the mudflats of the water front to a business section and within the last quarter century has become the center of a commercial district. This story of the site of the Fidelity Trust Company Building, once that of the Crown Coffee House, is from the manuscript history of Old Boston Taverns prepared by Mr. W. K. Watkins.
