Every seminary students, graduates, and pastors have the same problem with Greek

They agree that the knowledge of Greek can be helpful. However, it is extremely difficult to learn and even when they learned it was almost impossible to make it useful and relevant to their devotion, teaching, and preaching.

If you are searching for another Greek grammar book, chances are you also have the same problem, and Progressive Greek Grammar is going to provide you a very different learning experience, which is more enjoyable. Furthermore, Progressive Greek Grammar will demonstrate how you can use Greek for your personal Bible study, or preaching this Sunday, or to write your exegetical paper for academic journals.

Progressive Greek Grammar will let you:

- Understand the Greek language, how it is similar and different to English
- Use Greek grammar and syntax to translate the Greek New Testament without any help
- Teach, preach and write about the passages you have always been interested to find deeper truth

Professor Jung has helped many students and pastors just like you from discouragement to confidence, success, and praises. Today with PGG, you have a chance to find out if the testimony and reviews of his students may also become yours. Please see Amazon's "Look Inside" feature to glance over.

Please enjoy the book and email me if you have any questions before buying!
