Direct Examination. Volume II, Trying Cases to Win. Description (3900 characters maximum): Originally published: New York: Aspen Publishers, 1992. Reprinted 2013 by The Lawbook Exchange, Ltd. xv, 457 pp. The trial process is the sum of its parts-opening argument, direct and cross examination, and summation. In Trying Cases to Win, nationally known trial lawyer Herbert J. Stern provides an overall blueprint for conduct in the courtroom as he guides the reader through each of these segments. Rather than a collection of anecdotal war stories from various trials, Stern outlines the nuts and bolts of the right-and wrong-approach, processes and strategies for every component needed for trial success. Each volume is also available separately.

In this volume, Direct Examination, Stern provides a variety of direct examination techniques, using transcripts from a variety of cases.
