AMERICA in agrodolce (Italian Edition) Paolo Valentini

La guerra «tra un gigante e un moscerino» raccontata in una sceneggiatura che fa acqua da tutte le parti. L'unica bambina musulmana della classe prende la parola nell'ora di religione. Un presidente in carica alza il telefono alla ricerca di un conflitto che legittimi la sua prossima elezione. Una giornalista americana, aprendo l'elenco telefonico, s'imbatte in una strana società: la "Restore bin Laden & Bush Ltd. Company". Una precaria dipendente della NBC riceve una lettera d'amore in tempi d'antrace. Un curatissimo giardino al centro di Kabul dove si riuniscono persone tanto importanti quanto losche. Un responsabile della sicurezza aeroportuale alle prese con tre angurie che potrebbero rivelarsi un problema esplosivo. Con queste sette storie, giocate sul filo dell'ironia più amara, Paolo Valentini rilegge il labirinto di complotti, farneticanti teorie cospirative e parodie del dolore mediatiche che hanno fatto seguito al dramma dell'11 settembre 2001, anche alla luce di quanto oggi accade in Medio Oriente. Pubblicati originariamente sul giornale cinese "Ou Hua Shi Bao" (Il Tempo Europa Cina), i racconti di "America in agrodolce" vengono oggi presentati al pubblico italiano per la prima volta, in un'edizione eBook corredata dalle illustrazioni di Sara Bergomi, la nota a margine di Francesco Vico e l'introduzione dell'autore.
