Library books. They look so innocent and helpful. But did you know there's a border keeping the world of stories apart from the real-life world? And that the border must be guarded at all times? Me neither! I know it now, that's for sure. My friends Damiano and Inés crossed that border. They escaped from a book into my quiet, perfect little town of Alta Donna. And boy, did they bring trouble with them.

Now it's up to me to save the town, save my friends, and fix the damage to both worlds. At last my storytelling and dreams will come in handy!
