La reina de Chipre. Relatos (Spanish Edition) Marian Izaguirre

Los dieciséis relatos que componen La reina de Chipre se publicaron por primera vez en 1999 bajo un título diferente que Marian Izaguirre tomó prestado a Borges: Nadie es la patria. Ni siquiera el tiempo. Ahora, estas piezas que comparten la reflexión sobre los límites del espacio, del tiempo y de la literatura que tan cara es a su autora como lo era a Borges, cobran nueva vida tras casi dos décadas en el olvido. Su autora, al igual que Caterina Cornaro en su corte de mujer renacentista y cultivada, se ha rodeado en ellos de poetas, filósofos, pintores y músicos en un espacio construido solo con palabras en el que no habita el tiempo. Solo los sueños.

Corriere della Sera
