Marx's Critical/Dialectical Procedure (RLE Marxism) (Routledge Library Editions: Marxism) H.T. Wilson

This book, first published in 1991, demonstrates that Marx is the legitimate founder of what was to become the critical theory of society. It argues that in order to justify a new conception of humans as collective, cultural and historical beings, Marx undertook a radical critique of the theoretical/analytical method of his predecessors and his contemporaries in political economy, philosophy and the natural sciences. While elements of the methods of some of these thinkers – most conspicuously from the work of Aristotle, Kant and Hegel – were present in Marx's thought, he achieved a new synthesis of procedural, epistemological and ontological methods.
