Accrington's Pals: The Full Story: The 11th Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment and the 158th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery Andrew Jackson

Andrew Jackson's new history tells the story of the Great War as it was experienced by the men of the 11th Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment (Accrington Pals), the 158th (Accrington and Burnley) Brigade, Royal Field Artillery (Howitzers) and their families. Using information gathered from years of painstaking research in national and local archives and in private collections, he reconstructs, in vivid detail, the role played by these men on the Western Front. His book, which draws extensively on diaries, memoirs and letters, follows both infantry and artillerymen into the British army's bloodiest battles of the war, giving a graphic close-up view of their experiences. It is a moving record of the wartime service of a select group of local men during a time of unprecedented conflict.

REVIEWS

"...truly brings home the brutal realities of combat from an evocative, firsthand perspective in this intriguing book published to mark the war's centenary."
