Framed (Portraits Book #3) Tracie Peterson

Journalist Gabrielle Fleming reluctantly agrees to a tour of Great Britain when her sister suggest the trip as the basis for a series of travel articles. But Gabby's plans change dramatically when she finds herself saddled with photographer Jarod Walls, whose determined style initially clashes with her own.

Gabby's annoyance heightens when Janice continually forsakes her companionship to seek the tour director's attention--and Gabby's suspicions continue to rise when she overhears discussions concerning enormous money exchanges. Confused by the alliance her sister is forming and by Jarod's obvious interest, Gabby is hesitant to trust anyone.

Unwittingly intertwined in a maze of international intrigue, Gabby's simple assignment explodes into much more when her very life--and the life of her sister--hangs in the balance.
