The Experiment (Book Two) (The Imager Chronicles) Bill Myers

Denise and Josh are cross-dimensionalized to the land where they both begin to understand the Imager's role in their lives. Josh overcomes his doubt and begins to understand that science often falls short of explaining the world and believing takes an element of faith. Denise's struggle is also one of faith-in truly believing and understanding the Imager's love for her. When she is given the chance to create and desperately love her creation, everyone is surprised at the risks she takes to protect what she loves.
