Of all the world's travel spots, London may be the most popular for repeat visitors. Despite a weaker dollar and uncertain international climate, over 3.5 million Americans visit the U.K. every year, and over 60% spend their time exclusively in the capital. Fodor's London 2008 has been completely revamped to keep up with the destination that just won't quit!

- New "Experience London" section highlights the city's top attractions and niche offerings, to help both the first-time traveler and the repeat visitor plan the perfect trip
- New, separate "neighborhoods" chapters with easy-to-use indexes quickly point out the best eats and the chicest shops
- Tips from clever, opinionated local writers help you save money, bypass lines, and avoid common pitfalls
- Dozens of different pub listings for those seeking a river view or a true British brew
- Unique, pictorial layouts of the Thames River, Hyde Park, Westminster Abbey, and London's famous street markets—to name a few
- Expanded lodging for all budgets, from the latest pod hotels to London's oldest grande dame establishments
- Pullout map and color insert
