Foreverland Jane Hale

Join Thomas Scott and his friend Lefty, a disciple of baseball, as they add a new dimension to travel in an unforgettable trip to Hong Kong during spring break on a fireworks buying trip. Their vacation route detours into a maze of mystery as they search for a miracle for Richard, a young boy with an incurable disease. Their quest becomes the Foreverland fiber of the Easter story. The lines of an original poem are used as the title of each chapter. When you read the table of content you have read the poem. A word from each chapter title is translated to Chinese. An appendix is printed on how to read Chinese.
