Spirit Call: Commune with God through Rhyme John McCormack

Drawing close to God is one of the keys to developing a meaningful spiritual life in Christ. This book of poems has been written to strengthen and encourage you in your journey with God. These poems will help you cultivate a heart that can intimately commune with God. The poetry has been crafted to speak to your deepest needs. The author writes, "May it be a way to help you to write the truth of God's love on your heart as you let go and enter into your place of rest. It is there that God is waiting to meet you in the way He chooses. I want to particularly comfort you who are discouraged, who face seemingly formidable battles and obstacles and do not know why, or when it will end. I want to assure you that Jesus knows and cares."
