Ellen, Eartha, Marybeth, and Windy plan a vacation at a B&B to celebrate their college graduations. Instead, the week became a nightmare that was frightening and real. Fear and a destructive hurricane that produced snakes and crocodiles were the least of their problems. Murder, blackmail, treachery, and a reckless love ran through the lives and dreams of the B&B Black Bayou and the citizens of the tiny town of Cotton nearby. One by one, the young women begin to disappear. Was one of the Black Bayou family behind it? Was the petite grandmother as dangerous as the history she related to them? Or the brothers...one kind, one a black sheep, behind it all? The mysterious aunt with a hidden past...what else did she hide? Countless places and people have secrets. The cruel father of an unloved little boy blamed for his mother's death. The itinerate family returned. A colored man with mental deficiencies. A strange hotel manager. A café owner suspected of murdering her husband. Any one of them...who knew the answers.  Warning: This book contains extreme violence, rape, F/F, and BDSM.  BookStrand Erotic Romance
