Love Me, Hurt Me: A Husband's Tale of Torture Volume 3 Candy Kross

It was my birthday and my wife, Karen, decided to give me a surprise. I had worked all day, so while I was at work, she spent the day preparing my birthday surprise for me. I had no idea what it was going to be, because if I had, I probably would have run out of the building as fast as my legs would have carried me.

When I arrived home, Karen had me strip my clothes off and she blindfolded me. She then put some other clothes on me. From what I could tell, it was a tight pair of shorts, which I then felt and they were some type of soft rubbery material. She then put on a shirt that was made of lightweight material. I felt it and it felt like some sort of netting. I came to find out later that the material was called mesh.

Karen then led me to her car and I got into the passenger's side, still blindfolded. I had no idea what was in store for me. She drove for about twenty minutes or so, I couldn't really tell, but four songs had played on the radio and some commercials, by the time she had stopped.
